RE: PVC Pricing

Due to the recent increases in PVC raw material prices, Nudo must implement a Molding price increase. We are making every effort to control these costs, but effective with all orders placed on or after April 19th 2021 (for immediate shipment), the price of all PVC Moldings will see an increase from the existing price level. This increase includes:

Product Line	Increase
PVC Moldings	20%

Please contact your Sales Manager for current pricing.

Nudo prides ourselves on customer service, and will continue to monitor the situation, while also communicating further updates.

We sincerely appreciate your business, and our relationship with you and your company. Our goal, as always, is to bring you the highest quality product at competitive prices, with world class customer service. We thank you for your continued support.
